Census 2000.

It's more than a headcount.

Census is our chance to be adequately represented in the fabric of American life.

Our answers on the Census form provide important information. They help determine how $185 billion federal funds will be allocated for improving services in communities like ours.

Fill out Census 2000 and strengthen the voice of our community.

Your answers are confidential by law. Only aggregate statistical data is published.

Each voice counts, whether you're a citizen, green card holder or a non-resident.

A Census representative will help you fill out the form.

This is our future. Don't leave it blank.
